Christmas at Moher Hill Farm, Clare: Suinday 6th – Wednesday 23rd December

In the run up to Christmas, Moher Hill Farm is a hive of activity, as some of Santa's favourite elves move into the barn to use it as a workshop. The younger elves attend school while the older elves busy themselves making toys, with the North Pole post office to post your letter, the live crib and animated snow scene. Moher Hill Farm is the place to spend Christmas. To make sure everything is going to plan, Santa regularly visits Moher Hill Farm. He is made feel right at home in a wonderful Christmas Grotto, where children are invited to visit him, to receive a gift and have an individual chat with the jolly man himself. Adults aren't left out at Santa's Grotto; they will be greeted with a warming glass of mulled wine, tea or coffee and a homemade seasonal mince pie! For more information go towww.moherfarm.com

Christmas at Wells House and Gardens

Wells House and Gardens are delighted to welcome back Santa, Mrs Claus & their group of mischievous elves as they prepare for Christmas in the Winter Wonderland setting of Wells House & Gardens. Visit the elf workshop, help Mrs Claus with her preparations for Santa then visit the man himself in the Great Hall of Wells House & Gardens. Santa returns to Wells House & Gardens for visits on Sat 5th December! Tickets available here. Santa visits run from 5th December to 23rd and as there is no charge for accompanying adults this gives people the ideal opportunity to invite grandparents and friends to share in this memorable experience! Please note from 5th to 23rd December there will be no gate charge to visit Wells House & Gardens – our way of thanking you for your support throughout the year.

Santa's Island, Donegal's Lapland, Donegal

The longest running and most popular Christmas show in Donegal is back again for 2015 and you do really have to pass the North Pole to get here, we kid you not! The new visitors centre, where the main show will take place, is right next to the car park – you can't miss it. This new centre will be ready and open for this year's festive shows offering a whole new experience and great facilities not just for Santa but for everyone visiting Santa's Island this year. The new visitors centre also houses ample toilet facilities and a baby changing area. The Elves' Disco in Santa's Village is open to everyone of all ages to bust some moves with Santa's elves and enjoy some refreshments and treats as well. The whole show takes place in the dark of night with thousands of lights for special effects to add to the whole experience. In Santa's Village you can visit Santa's home, see what he eats for breakfast and visit the elves' bedroom. You can explore Santa's office and the children can write and post their list for Christmas. Tour Santa's shops, visit the toy factory and sit on Santa's sleigh. In Santa's home, the children can meet Santa again and have their photographs taken with him. You also can continue through a tunnel into Elves Kingdom. This is completely different world with Elves houses and many more surprises. Each child will receive a small gift from Santa. Santa will call out each child by name to give them their gift personally. For more information go towww.donegalslapland.ie

Cork North Pole Outpost Experience, Cobh, Cork: Sunday 29th November – Wednesday 23rd December

The Cork North Pole Outpost Experience is a fun and imaginative theatrical production bringing to life the real values of a Cork good ol' fashioned Christmas.
